

CENTER FOR AMERICAN STUDIES

* DONORS PAST & PRESENT ***

A Heartfelt Thanks to One & All

Cultural activities, in the fullest sense of the word, are not possible without support. Support by representatives of the economic sphere, businessmen and -women — along with leaders of community organizations and interested individuals — who both recognize and value the cultural initiative in question.

So it is. We could not have done our work over the decades (now) -- beginning with the weekend convocation in 1979, 35 years ago entitled The Grail & America: A Journey of Peace -- without such business and community support.

Our labors, and the vision borne of them, would not have been able to reach the thousands of people they have reached over the years — including international leaders, representing over 68 nations, as well as students from nearly every state in our nation — unless those noted, one and all, had taken the time to pause from their labors, listen to our appeal, and extend a generous hand.

We both recognize, and recognized, this fact (particularly during times when our economy was ailing, fortunes were modest) and are deeply appreciative of the generosity that you, those noted herewith, bestowed upon us. Your financial capital has allowed our aspiring spiritual capital to be real-ized, become real.

May such team-work continue to bear forth abundant fruits in and for our times.

Con-cord-e,

Stuart-Sinclair Weeks
Founder/Director
